Gmail Eric Newman <[redacted]>

Re: Fw: Re: Catalogs

1 message

[redacted] < [redacted] > Wed, Feb 16, 2011 at 3:06 PM
To: [redacted]
Bcc: [redacted]

Mr.John Ingle:
The Early American auction catalogs have been using the book I wrote EARLY PAPER MONEY OF AMERICA for years and are still using it. I have all of your past catalogs except the last two and they were sent to me gratis. Please ask Dennis to have you send me these and send me future catalogs. I realize that your new procedure may be better for your customers but I need a permanent file for my coin museum books in hard copy. Everybody has been doing this for me for decades and still is doing it, We are a not for profit organization. .Thank you.
My address is Eric P. Newman Numismatic Education Society 6450 Cecil Ave. St. Louis MO 63105 . .

In a message dated 2/15/2011 4:55:11 P.M. Central Standard Time, [redacted] writes:

> This is the response I got from Early American when I followed up. We can discuss electronic downloading but it is not really a substitute. Tom
>
> --- On Tue, 2/15/11, John Ingle < [redacted] wrote:
>
> > From: John Ingle <[redacted]
> > Subject: Re: Catalogs
> > To: "Thomas Serfass" <[redacted]
> > Date: Tuesday, February 15, 2011, 1:56 PM
> >
> > Tom:
> >
> > We have changed the way we are producing our catalogs. We are currently using a "print-on-demand" system available through Amazon.com.
> >
> > If you want to receive a catalog, you can purchase the February 19th issue at Amazon.com by first going to our website and following the link to purchase a professionally printed catalog.
> >
> > website: http://www.EarlyAmerican.com
> >
> > Another alternative (BETTER AND CHEAPER) is to simply download the catalog directly from our website as a PDF file.
> >
> > Thank you for your interest in Early American,
> >
> > John Ingle
> >
> > Voice: 858-759-3290
> > FAX: 858-759-1439
> >
> > website: http://www.EarlyAmerican.com
> >
> > email: [redacted]
> >
> > Early American
> > P.O. Box 3507
> > Rancho Santa Fe, CA 92067
> >
> > > ----- Original Message -----
> > > From: Thomas Serfass

To: [redacted]
Sent: Monday, February 14, 2011 12:42 PM
Subject: Catalogs

Hello Mr. Linett:
My name is Tom Serfass, curator of the Newman Money Museum at Washington University. Eric P. Newman has asked me to write to you. In the past you have been kind enough to mail us copies of your wonderful auction catalogs for our numismatic library. We haven't received any for a period of months and we were hoping that you could continue your generous donation to our library and museum. We are happy to provide paperwork confirming your donation if that would be helpful. Please feel free to call if you have any questions. Thank you for your time and attention to this request.
P.S. I enjoy you on Pawn Stars, although sometimes it makes me cringe when I see what they have and how far you have to drive to tell them its nothing valuable.

Tom Serfass, Curator, Newman Money Museum
Washington University
One Brookings Drive, Campus Box 1214
St. Louis, MO 63130